All Souls Day

“Jesus said, “Young man, I say to you, rise!” Luke 7:15

Jesus saw what happened and He was moved by compassion..

“The Lord halts before the tragedy of death. Here we see our God, whose divinity shines forth in contact with our sorrow and grief, for His is a heart full of compassion. The raising of that young man, the gift of life that overcomes death, has its source precisely there, in the compassion of the Lord, who is moved by death, the greatest cause of our suffering. How important it is to communicate that same look of compassion to all those who grieve for the death of their loved ones!

Why this extraordinary and unusual miracle? Because it has to do with an orphan and a widow, those whom the Bible, along with strangers, considers most alone and forsaken, having no one else to trust but God.

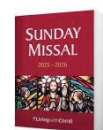

The orphan and the widow are “the humble” - the poor in spirit, who reveal to us the “littleness” so pleasing to the Lord, the path that leads to Heaven. God seeks the humble, those who hope in Him and not in themselves and their own plans. Dear brothers and sisters, this is Christian humility, which is not simply one virtue among others, but the basic disposition of life: believing ourselves to be in need of God, making room for Him and putting all our trust in Him. This is Christian humility.” Nov.3, 2023

“Let us ask God to grant us a compassionate gaze and a humble heart.”

SUPPORT CATHOLIC EDUCATION: For more than 185 years, Catholic education has been an integral part of Ontario's story. As a vital component of our province's publicly funded school system, Catholic schools nurture faith, inspire achievement, and educate nearly 600,000 students each year. When you declare yourself as a Separate (Catholic) school supporter, you are helping to preserve and strengthen publicly funded Catholic education in Ontario.

To make sure your support is directed to Catholic education:
1. Check your property tax bill or speak with your landlord if you rent. 2. Visit the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) School Support Designation page to verify or update your school support online. By confirming your support today, you help ensure that your voice — and your vote — strengthens Catholic education in the October 26, 2026, Municipal Election and beyond.
