Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Lord, will only a few be saved?"
Luke 13:23

Today's Gospel passage urges us to meditate on the topic of salvation.

"Using the image of a door,

Jesus wants His listeners to understand that it is not a question of numbers — how many will be saved —, how many is not relevant, but rather, it is important for everyone to know the way that leads to salvation. This way means entering through a door. But where is the door? Who is the door? Jesus himself is that door." He leads us to communion with the Father, where we find love, understanding and protection. The door of God's mercy is narrow but is always open to everyone! Jesus extends a pressing invitation to us today to go to Him, to pass through the door of a full, reconciled and happy life. He awaits each one of us, no matter what sins we have committed, to embrace us, to offer us his forgiveness. Aug.21'16

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 14:11 Jesus always shows us the way to humility and humble generosity. "Jesus' words emphasize completely different and opposing attitudes: the attitude of those who choose their own place and the attitude of those who allow God to assign it and await a reward from Him. Let us not forget this: God pays much more than we do! He gives us a much greater place than that which the world gives us! The place that God gives us is close to His heart and His reward is eternal life. "You will be blessed", Jesus says, "you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just" (v. 14). The fundamental message of the Gospel is to serve others out of love for God. We must learn the way of humility!"

Sept.1'19 "May the Virgin Mary, "the humblest and highest of creatures" help us to recognize ourselves as we are, that is, small; and to rejoice in giving without something in return."

Eucharistic Adoration - Spend an hour with Jesus! Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration 9:30am - 5pm
Wed. Sept 3rd beginning at 9:30am.

Everyone is invited. Unscheduled drop-ins are welcome.
