Most Holy Name of Jesus

Glorious name, gracious name,
name of love and of power!
Through You sins are forgiven, through You enemies are vanquished, through You the sick are freed from their illness, through You those suffering in trials are made strong and cheerful. You bring honor to those who believe,
You teach those who preach, You give strength to the toiler, You sustain the weary.

The Baptism of the Lord

“And when Jesus had been baptized, just as He came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to Him and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on Him.” Matthew 3:16
With the birth of Jesus the heavens open!

“God gives us in Christ the guarantee of an indestructible love. From the moment the Word became flesh it is therefore possible to see the open heavens.

It was possible for the shepherds of Bethlehem, for the Magi of the East, for the Baptist, for Jesus’ Apostles, and for St Stephen, the first martyr, who exclaimed: “Behold, I see the heavens opened!” (Acts 7:56). And it is possible for each one of us - if we allow ourselves to be suffused with God’s love. This love is given to us for the first time in Baptism by means of the Holy Spirit. Let us allow ourselves to be invaded by God’s love!

Jesus receives approval from the Heavenly Father to accept to share our condition - our poverty. Sharing is the true way to love. Jesus does not dissociate Himself from us. He considers us brothers and sisters and He shares with us. And so He makes us sons and daughters, together with Him - of God the Father. This is the revelation and source of true love.

Does it not seem to you that we all need extra charity? A charity that shares, that takes on the hardship and suffering of a brother\sister. What flavour life acquires when we allow ourselves to be inundated by God’s love!”
Jan.12, 2014

“Let us ask the Holy Virgin to support us in our commitment to follow Christ on the way of faith and charity, the path traced out by our Baptism. “

Prayer for Christian Unity

– January 18 - 25, 2026

This universal week of prayer encourages Christians of all denominations to meet, participate in a variety of liturgical and other community activities, while also praying together that, "all may be one", as Christ desires.

The theme of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026 comes from the Letter to the Ephesians: "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling." (Eph 4:4). The week focuses on "one hope" - emphasizing shared heritage, service, and spiritual renewal, encouraging prayer for unity and peace, especially for war-torn areas, following Pope Leo XIV's calls for compassion and shared spiritual journey in 2026.

The prayers and reflections for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity were prepared by an ecumenical group coordinated by the Inter-Church Relations' Department of the Armenian Apostolic Church.

The materials draw upon centuries-old traditions of prayer used by the Armenian people, along with hymns that originated in the ancient monasteries and churches of Armenia, some of which date as far back as the fourth century.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026 therefore offers an invitation to draw upon this shared Christian heritage and to delve more deeply into our fellowship in Christ, which unites Christians worldwide.

The Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity has published resource materials for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity available to all:
