First Sunday of Advent

"They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks." Isaiah 2:4

"Jesus is coming: Advent reminds us of this certainty already from its name, since the word Advent means coming."

"This is the root of our hope, the certainty that among the tribulations of the world, God's consolation comes to us; a consolation that is made not of words, but of presence, of His presence that comes among us. Here is the source of our joy: the Lord has not grown tired and will never tire of us, He wishes to come, to visit us."

Consumerism is a virus that afflicts faith at its root, because it makes a person believe that life depends only on what you have, and so you forget about God who comes to meet you and those around you. Dec.1,2019
In this season of Advent, we are called to expand the horizons of our hearts, to be amazed by the life which presents itself each day with newness. Nov.27,2016 It is up to us to unmask the deception that one is happy if one has so many things, to resist the dazzling lights of consumption, which will shine everywhere in this month, and to believe that prayer and charity are not lost time, but the greatest treasures." Dec.1,2019

May Our Lady, the Virgin of Advent, help us to be ready to let ourselves be visited by Him, the awaited and welcome guest, and to believe that prayer and charity are not lost time, but the greatest treasures.

Congratulations!
