Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And He said to them, "Be on your guard against all forms of greed, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of one's possessions." Luke 12:15

Today Jesus invites us to consider that riches can chain the heart and distract it from the true treasure that is in heaven. "

"Seek the things that are above. ... turn your thoughts to the things above, not of things on Earth" (Col 3, 1-2). This – you understand—does not mean being alienated from reality, but look for things that have a true value: justice, solidarity, hospitality, fraternity, peace, all of which constitute the true dignity of man. It is a matter of inclining towards a life lived not in the worldly way, but according to the Gospel: to love God with our whole being, and to love our neighbour as Jesus loved him/her, that is in service and self-giving. The greed for possessions, the desire to have possessions, does not satisfy the heart, indeed it provokes more hunger!... You will never be satisfied. Be careful! " Pope Francis Aug 4, 2019

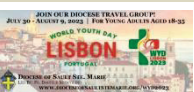

"May the Virgin Mary help us not to be fascinated by the securities that pass by, but to be credible witnesses every day to eternal values of the Gospel."

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into." Luke 12:43

This is important: vigilance, being alert, being vigilant in life.

"Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes" (v. 37): it is the beatitude of faithfully awaiting the Lord, of being ready, with an attitude of service. He presents himself each day, knocks at the door of our heart. Those who open it will be blessed, because they will have a great reward: indeed, the Lord will make himself a servant to his servants — it is a beautiful reward — in the great banquet of his Kingdom He himself will serve them. To be able to enter one must be ready, awake and committed to serving others, from the comforting perspective that, "beyond", it will no longer be we who serve God, but He himself who will welcome us to his table. If you think about it, this already happens today each time we meet the Lord in prayer, or in serving the poor, and above all in the Eucharist, where he prepares a banquet to nourish us of His Word and of his Body."

Aug 7, 2016 "May the Virgin Mary help us to be people striving toward the future of God, toward the encounter with Him, our life and our hope."

Eucharistic Adoration The essence of Eucharistic Adoration is spending time with Jesus. We will gather together again on Wednesday, August 3rd
