Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You received good things, but Lazarus received evil: now he is comforted, while you are in agony." Luke 16:19-31

This Sunday's Gospel helps us understand what it means to love, and more than anything how to avoid certain risks.

"The rich man suffers from terrible blindness, because he is not able to look beyond his world, made of banquets and fine clothing. He cannot see beyond the door of his house to where Lazarus lies, because what is happening outside does not interest him. He does not see with his eyes, because he cannot feel with his heart. But the Lord looks at those who are neglected and discarded by the world. A Christian must go out from themselves, to write history! But whoever lives for themselves cannot write history. As servants of the word of Jesus we have been called not to parade our appearances and not to seek for glory; nor can we be sad or full of complaints. Whoever proclaims the hope of Jesus carries joy and sees a great distance - at the same time, they see clearly from up close, because they are attentive to their neighbour and to their neighbour's needs." Sept 25, 2016 "Jesus loves us personally! May He give us the strength to live and proclaim the commandment of love, overcoming blindness of appearances, and worldly sadness. May He make us sensitive to the poor, who are not an afterthought in the Gospel but an important page, always open before all."

Level I: ages 3 to 6 years

Parent/Guardian Meeting is Tuesday September 27th @ 7pm – for all interested in registering their child(ren) for this coming fall. *All parents are asked to attend.

The Kingdom of God, what is it like? This is a song children come to know and enjoy singing in the Good Shepherd Regional Atrium. Our room is located downstairs in the Pro-Cathedral. The atrium has many hands-on materials created to aid children in knowing who Jesus is. The topographic map of the Land of Israel is one example. The Kingdom of God parables are another. Come join us on Tuesday September 27th, at 7pm and see what we are all about! Peace & Joy!
Erin Tayler, Suzanne Charette and Susan Perna
Parishes: Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption. Holy Name of Jesus, and St. Peter the Apostle parish families make up the Regional Atrium.
