The Epiphany of the Lord

“...and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was.”

Matthew 2:9

The actions of the Magi guide our journey towards the Lord, who today is revealed as light and salvation for all peoples.

“The Magi see the star, they set out and they bring gifts. I wonder if we still know how to look up at the sky? Do we know how to dream, to long for God, to expect the newness He brings? The Magi understood that to truly live, we need a lofty goal and we need to keep looking up.

Jesus’ star does not dazzle or overwhelm, but gently invites. We may ask ourselves what star we have chosen to follow in our lives. The Lord’s star may not always overwhelm by its brightness - but it is always there, ever kindly: it takes you by the hand in life and accompanies you. It does not promise material reward, but ensures peace and grants, as it did to the Magi, “exceedingly great joy” (Mt 2:10). But it also tells us to set out.

Jesus’ star demands a decision to take up the journey and to advance tirelessly on our way. Jesus allows Himself to be found by those who seek Him. We need to take risks simply to meet a Child. In finding that Child, in discovering His tenderness and love, we rediscover ourselves.

Having come to Jesus after a long journey, the Magi do as He does: they bring gifts. Jesus is there to give His life; they offer Him their own costly gifts: gold, incense and myrrh. Today let us look at our hands, so often empty of love, and let us try to think of some free gift that we can give without expecting anything in return. That will please the Lord. And let us ask Him: “Lord, let me rediscover the joy of giving”. Ultimately let us imitate the Magi: looking upwards, setting out, and freely offering our gifts.” Jan.6, 2018

Most Holy Name of Jesus

Glorious name, gracious name, name of love and of power! Through You sins are forgiven, through You enemies are vanquished, through You the sick are freed from their illness, through You those suffering in trials are made strong and cheerful. You bring honor to those who believe, You teach those who preach, You give strength to the toiler, You sustain the weary.

-St. Bernardine of Siena

Month of January: Dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus

The very name bespeaks the magnitude of His mission, His infinite love, a love that will cause Him to offer

Himself up for us.
