The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

“Making a whip of cords, He drove all of them out of the temple...”

John 2:15 The Lateran Basilica is the Cathedral of Rome and which tradition defines as “mother of all Churches - of the city and of the world”.

“Each time we celebrate the dedication of a church, an essential truth is recalled: the physical temple made of brick and mortar is a sign of the living Church serving in history. The Temple of God is not only a building made of brick and mortar, but is His Body, made of living stone. Through the power of Baptism, every Christian takes part in “God’s building” (1 Cor 3:9) - indeed they become the Church of God.

The spiritual structure, the Church community of mankind sanctified by the Blood of Christ and by Spirit of the Risen Lord, asks each one of us to be consistent with the gift of the faith and to undertake a journey of Christian witness. And we all know that in life it is not easy to maintain consistency between faith & testimony; but we must carry on and be coherent in our daily life.

“This is a Christian!”, not so much in what we say, but in what we do, and the way in which we behave. This coherence, which gives us life, is a grace of the Holy Spirit which we must ask for.

The Church is called to be the community in the world – the essential goal of bearing witness to the faith in love.

Today’s celebration invites us to meditate on the communion of all Churches - to build bridges of understanding and dialogue, to make of the entire world one family of people reconciled among themselves, in fraternal solidarity.” Nov.9, 2014

World Day of the Poor – Nov. 16, 2025

"You have made me see many troubles and calamities" Ps 71:20 In a message for this year's observance, Pope Leo draws on Psalm 71: "You, O Lord, are my hope" (Ps 71:5) which well up from a heart burdened by grave hardship. The Psalmist exclaims. At the same time, his heart remains open and confident; steadfast in faith, he acknowledges the support of God, whom he calls "a rock of refuge, a strong fortress" (v. 3). "It is my hope, then, that this Jubilee Year will encourage the development of policies aimed at combatting forms of poverty both old and new, as well as implementing new initiatives to support and assist the poorest of the poor."

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR
